At the outset of the meeting, the Chief Secretary of the Parishad Prof. Sureshchandra Dave and Joint Secretary Mr. Ghanshyam Trivedi greeted the Chancellor and the President with flower bouquets. Pandit Dhanshankar Gaurishankar Vaidya, an aged Sanskrit scholar and erstwhile royal ayurved physician, who attended the executive committee meeting despite his overage, was also greeted by the Parishad. The annual report and accounts were presented for approval. During the meeting the budget estimates for the year 2012-13 were also presented before the executive committee. The Parishad's Rs 7.24 lakh deficit-budget with an estimated income of Rs 21.02 lakh and estimated expenditure of Rs. 28.26 lakh was approved.

The executive committee decided to reduce examination fees for the students keeping in view the price-inflation. At the same time, the executive committee also resolved to increase rewards for those engaged in dissemination of Sanskrit, revise honorarium for examiners and increase the discount on books.

The members volunteered their contribution to strengthen the Parishad and deliberated on various suggestions during the meeting. Shree Bruhad Gujarat Sanskrit Parishad, in the conclusion, specifically thanked the Chancellor for sparing his valuable time and making announcement of his contribution for strengthening the cause of Sanskrit language.
