Parimal Nathwani Donates an AC Funeral-Van for Ranchi Cemetery

Ranchi's Muslims Lauds Nathwani's Support

Ranchi : October 19, 2013: Rajya Sabha member Parimal Nathwani donated to-day a special air-conditional dead-body carrier to Ratu Road Kabristan Action Committee of Anjuman Islamiya. The vehicle was presented to the Committee in a simple ceremony held to-day in presence of Mr. Sandeep Verma, Smt. Nusrat Jahan and Mr. Shahzade Nabi, all belonging to the MP's office.

Mr. Nathwani ordered conversion of a Tata Winger van into a dead-body carrier by getting its modernization done at Ahmedabad. The vehicle is tailor-made with easily operatable zanaza stand, sitting arrangements for about ten people carrying the dead-body etc. Spiritual anecdotes befitting the purpose of the vehicle are painted in interior and exterior of the vehicle. The vehicle was transported in a special trailer from Ahmedabad to Ranchi. In all, Mr. Nathwani spent Rs. 10.21 lakhs from his personal fund.

Earlier, Mr. Nathwani constructed 1900 ft. circular road in Ratu Road Kabristan from MPLAD fund. During its inauguration on June 28 last, people of Kabristan Action Committee and Anjuman-e-Islamia explained to Mr. Nathwani that people reach the Kabristan from as far as five kilometers carrying dead-body on the shoulders. A vehicle could be a great help, they represented to Mr. Nathwani, who promised the one and arranged the same in no time. Mr. Nathwani also assured the Muslims that he would construct another 1500 ft road in Kabristan from MPLAD fund, the work on which would begin as soon as the same is sanctioned.

Social Worker Janab Hussain Kuchchhi, Mr. Zabi Ullah, President, of Kabristan Action Committee, Janab Ibrar Ahmad, President of Anjuman Islamiya, General Secretary Janab Haji Mukhtar, Dr. Shahid Akhtar, Chairman of Jharkhand Minority Commission, Maulana Tahzibul Hassan, Enamul, Md. Naqib, Nayeem Akhtar, Ziyaul Hauda, Md. Shakil and host of Muslims thanked Mr. Nathwani for his whole-hearted support. It is known that the MP was lauded for complete renovation and beautification of Harmu Mokshadham sometime back. The assistance to Ratu Road Kabristan marks Mr. Nathwani's constant endeavor and zeal to serve the people of Jharkhand.
