RIMS Up-gradation To Be Complete By December 2011

Ranchi: August 2, 2011: The civil work of the Rajendra Prasad Institute of Medical Sciences (RIMS), Ranchi is expected to be completed by December 2011. This was stated by Mr. Ghulam Nabi Azad, the Union Minister of Health and Family Welfare today in Rajya Sabha. He was replying to a question from Mr. Parimal Nathwani, a Rajya Sabaha member from the state.

The upgradation of RIMS was undertaken as a part of the Pradhan Mantri Swasthya Suraksha Yojna (PMSSY). Under the first phase of this upgradation, construction of 172 bedded Super Speciality Block and 68 bedded Oncology Block was undertaken. The civil work of these blocks progressed 65 per cent and was expected to be ready by December 2011, the statement said.

There is only one project in the state under the PMSSY. It aims at correcting regional imbalances in the availability of affordable and reliable tertiary health care services as well as to augment facilities for quality medical education in the country.
